

The Affordable Connectivity Program

A Federal Government Program

Save up to $30/mo. on your Internet service.

Save up to $ 0

Optimum is dedicated to helping our communities stay connected affordably. We are proud to now participate in the Federal Government's Affordable Connectivity Program, a program to help eligible households pay for Internet service.

This program is available to both current and new Optimum customers. If you qualify, and depending on the speed you choose, your Internet service could be FREE with this $30 credit.

Affordable Connectivity Program qualifying groups:

+ Recipients of SNAP/food stamps, Medicaid, or those eligible to participate in another one of the FCC's Lifeline qualifying programs

+ Recipients of free or reduced-price school lunch or breakfast through the National School Lunch Program (NSLP)

+ Recipients of free or reduced-price school lunch or breakfast through the National School Lunch Program (NSLP)

+ Recipients of free or reduced-price school lunch or breakfast through the National School Lunch Program (NSLP)

+ Recipients of free or reduced-price school lunch or breakfast through the National School Lunch Program (NSLP)

+ Recipients of free or reduced-price school lunch or breakfast through the National School Lunch Program (NSLP)

+ Recipients of free or reduced-price school lunch or breakfast through the National School Lunch Program (NSLP)

+ Recipients of free or reduced-price school lunch or breakfast through the National School Lunch Program (NSLP)

For more information on this program, including eligibility and how to apply, visit optimum.com/ACP

How do you get the affordable connectivity benefit?

1 Qualify

First verify if you are eligible. Make sure that the person with internet service is the same person who is applying for the benefit.

Get Service

Get Optimum Internet. If you are already an Optimum customer, move on to step 3.

Save

Apply your benefit to save on Internet. Once approved, your credit will appear within two billing cycles.

 um.

Eligible households can receive up to $30 (or up to $75 for eligible households on Tribal Lands) monthly bill credit towards Internet service. Bulk Internet and commercial accounts excluded. Limit one credit per qualified household. Terms, conditions, and restrictions apply. Free Internet claim is based on Internet tiers priced $30 or less. Credit will be applied to your bill within two billing cycles. For more information, visit optimum.com/ACP.